TOUTA-MUSIC

Clíona Doris is a Professor at DIT Conservatory of Music and Drama, Dublin, and previously Head of Orchestral Studies and Head of Conservatory. She is a graduate of The Queen's University of Belfast and Indiana University, Bloomington, USA. Clíona has extensive experience as a soloist and chamber musician, particularly as an exponent of contemporary music. Her recordings include releases for Riverun Records, RTÉ lyric fm, LCMS, NMC and Diatribe. She is a member of the Board of Directors of Music Network, Music Generation and the World Harp Congress, and former Chair of the Ninth World Harp Congress Dublin 2005 and the Contemporary Music Centre of Ireland. www.clionadoris.com

Denise Kelly is a Lecturer in Harp at the DIT Conservatory of Music and Drama, Dublin. A graduate of Trinity College, Dublin and DIT Conservatory, her harp teachers include Maria Korchinska, Sidonie Goossens (Guildhall School of Music, London) and Francette Bartholomée (Conservatoire Royal, Brussels). Denise has taught in both the Belfast and Cork Schools of Music, and the Royal Irish Academy of Music, Dublin, and has coached the Irish Youth Orchestras. A composer and arranger, Denise has worked as a chamber musician and accompanist. Both as soloist and as Principal Harpist, Denise has performed and recorded with The Ulster Orchestra, RTÉ Concert and National Symphony Orchestras of Ireland.

A native of Brittany, Tristan Le Govic began playing the Celtic harp at six years old. While living in Ireland, Scotland and Sweden, he blended his native repertoire with other music to develop a unique sound. As one of the finest Celtic harpers today, he has performed around the world and has appeared at many festivals in Europe, USA, Canada, Russia... He is the editor of the Breton Harp Anthology (2015) and has recently released a new album Dañs with his trio (harp, bass, drums). www.tristanlegovic.eu
