U19	80 Euros
U25	100 Euros

3. Competition

- 3.1 The entire programme in each age category has to be played from memory.
- 3.2 The order of performance is left to the contestant's own discretion.
- 3.3 Should a performance on stage last longer than the stipulated duration, the jury are permitted to interrupt the contestant.
- 3.4 The order in which contestants perform at the competition will be determined by drawing of lots. It will be executed by the organising committee. All contestants will receive an individual notification by e-mail with the time of their practice and performance. This order of performance will apply throughout all stages of the competition.
- 3.5 No more than three contestants may advance to the finals of the U25 category.
- 3.6 Each U25 finalist will receive a rehearsal time to work with their chamber music partners. Each contestant will be entitled to the same amount of rehearsal time.
- 3.7 The announcement of all prize winners and distribution of prizes will take place during the closing ceremony.
- 3.8 Each prize winner will be awarded a diploma. All contestants will be awarded a certificate.
- 3.9 Harps sponsored by Camac Harps, and individual practice time, will be provided to active contestants. U25 contestants may choose from the provided harps for their performance. U19 contestants will be assigned a choice of 2 harps for the competition performance. U14 contestants will be assigned 2 harps (a lever and a pedal harp) selected for the competition, on which all the candidates will perform. Participants may use their personal instruments, at their own liability and costs.
- 3.10 Contestants are expected to use original scores of the works they perform and must be able to supply the scores used in their programme to the organising committee. Contestants must provide 2 photocopies of each piece (except the set pieces) for the jury. Photocopies will be destroyed after the competition.

4. Repertoire

U14 A free program of 7 minutes, including a set piece: choose one movement from Rudolf Maros: Suite for harp (Editio Musica Budapest <http://www.kotta.info/en/product/7390/MAROS-RUDOLF-Suite-for-harp>)

U19 Stage 1: a free program of 10 minutes, including 2-3 pieces from Béla Bartók's Mikrokosmos vol. III-VI (<http://www.kotta.info/en/product/7390/MAROS-RUDOLF-Suite-for-harp>)

Stage 2: a free program of 12 minutes, including a free choice Domenico Scarlatti Sonata

U25 Stage 1: a free program of 10 minutes, including a Bach-transcription (which could be a movement of a longer piece – suite, partita, etc – , a chorale, an excerpt from Das Wohltemperierte Klavier or Die Kunst der Fuge, etc. In any transcription, any edition.)

Stage 2: a free program of 25 minutes, including a Liszt-transcription (any edition)

Stage 3: Claude Debussy's Sonata for flute, viola and harp (any edition), and a free choice virtuoso encore.

5. Jury

- 5.1 The jury consists of an uneven number of members, and of harpists and a non-harpist musician.
- 5.2 One of the members of the jury will be appointed chair by the organising committee. No further distinction is made between jury members.
- 5.3 All members of the jury must be present for all stages and deliberations during the competition.
- 5.4 The jurors' mission is to rank the contestants according to the procedure established by these rules.
- 5.5 The decisions of the jury are final and there is no right of appeal.
- 5.6 The jury will vote by secret ballot.
- 5.7 Prior to first stage of each category, jurors will be asked to submit a conflict of interest disclosure form, identifying contestants whom they have taught in either a private lesson or a class setting. Jurors may not vote for, or take part in any discussion about, a contestant who is currently studying with them or who has studied with them in the past. In the case of masterclasses, jurors must abstain from voting if they believe a student/teacher relationship was/has been established.
- 5.8 Throughout the competition, the jury shall refrain from having any direct or indirect contact with any active contestant or his/her next of kin, as the impression could be given that a contestant is receiving special treatment or advice. The only exception to the contact restriction is a health emergency requiring assistance from a medical professional.
- 5.9 There is to be no conversation between jurors, including positive or negative comments, in the audition hall during the stages. Jurors are required to avoid talking about active contestants and discussing their performances at all times, and to refrain from influencing other jurors during the competition.
- 5.10 Time after each category's final stage will be scheduled for the jury to meet with contestants who are no longer active, to share performance insights and to answer questions.

6. Voting procedure

6.1 Contestants' performances are to be evaluated based on the following criteria:

Musicianship	0-10 points
Technique	0-10 points
Stage presence	0-10 points

6.2 For each stage the contestants with the highest average scores will advance.

6.3 After each stage, jurors will submit their completed evaluation forms to the jury assistant. Jurors will abstain from judging participants who are or have been their students. Jurors should turn in blank evaluation forms for contestants whom they have taught.

6.4 Evaluation form will be confidential at all times.

6.5 Jury deliberations are to be regarded as confidential during and after the competition.

6.6 No jurors will be allowed to see the evaluation forms of other jurors.

6.7 Points may not be changed once the stage's evaluation forms are collected.

7. Awards

7.1 The jury is not obliged to award all prizes, if they do not wish to do so.

7.2 Audience Prize

7.2.1 For the audience prize, the audience of final stage of each category can indicate which contestant he or she likes best. One contestant in each category with the most votes will receive the audience prize.

7.2.2 The vote count will be overseen by the jury assistant.

7.2.3 In the event of a tie between contestants, the audience prize will be awarded to both contestants. The prize will be divided amongst the equally ranked contestants.

7.3 Special Awards

Special awards will be confirmed at a later date.
