

The
LONDON HARP COMPETITIONS
are going online

YES WE CAM!

The Covid-19 pandemic has made it necessary to cancel the live harp competitions, which would have taken place at North Bank House on May 24th and 25th, 2020.

Instead, we are GOING ONLINE!

We will be running video competitions for harp solo grades 1-8, and a streamlined version of the Camac Competition for conservatoire students and young professionals.

Here's what to do:

 FREE of charge to enter.

 PRIZES.

 Winning videos will be published on the Camac Harps and North London websites and FB pages.

 Personalised feedback from our illustrious jury will be sent to ALL competitors.

- 1 • Record your complete competition programme, for example on your mobile phone. These recordings should be recorded in one take, from one camera angle, unedited.
- 2 • Upload the video via private link to any standard platform: Vimeo, YouTube, etc.
- 3 • Send the following information by email to Helen Leitner, ar@camac-harps.com:
  - Name, age, postcode, contact phone number, DOB, teacher
  - Titles of the pieces played
  - Link to the video

Closing date for entries: May 22nd, 2020

Any questions: ar@camac-harps.com

If you already paid entry fees: the North London Festival will get in touch with you with information about donations and refunds

CAMAC SENIOR COMPETITION

It's not easy to organise a final round on video, so the senior competition will take place in ONE ROUND ONLY.

First prize: £500

Second prize: £300

Third prize: £100

PROGRAMME: Contrasting recital programme between 15 - 20 minutes in length.
The Camac senior competition is open to conservatoire students and young professional harpists up to and including the age of 30, living and/or studying in the United Kingdom and Ireland.

United Kingdom Harp Association Special Prize: £200, to be awarded to a competitor from any category.
