"A unique voice that she uses like a musical instrument, accompanied by her harp and an incredible stage presence" - The Voice France 2020

Singer, harpist, pianist, composer, producer... Gustine is a musical omnivore, a multifaceted artist - a free electron! Since her studies at the Reims Conservatory with Dominique Demogeot, and a stint at the Cefedem de Lorraine where she obtained her national qualifications in teaching and contemporary music, Gustine has devoted herself to performance and creation. She has collaborated with many artists, written music for contemporary dance, spent 4 years on tour with DJ Fakear (electro), composed a pop piece for symphony orchestra, accompanied Albin de la Simone at the Philharmonie de Paris, sung at the Stade de France for the Rolling Stones - and was discovered by the whole of France on the TV show The Voice.

Gustine will soon release her first album as a songwriter and arranger. Hear her unplugged tonight, alone with her harp.
