PROGRAMME

Myrdhin

Born in Upper Brittany to a Cornish family, Myrdhin is one of the driving forces behind the revival of the Celtic harp in Brittany. Since the 1970s he has been applauded both in France and abroad: in Germany, Austria, Belgium, Canada, Great Britain, Denmark, Switzerland, Netherlands, Turkey, Poland, Russia, Italy, Japan, Spain, Portugal, Norway, and Paraguay.

He has received numerous awards, such as the Triskell d'Or, Kan ar Bobl, 1st prizes for harp and singing in Killarney-Ireland, Nancy Richards's Trophy in Wales, J.M.F. and France Musique awards, and the Chevalier des Arts et des Lettres in 2002. In 2000, as part of AFROCELT, MYRDHIN was nominated for a Grammy Award in Los Angeles (world music category).

He draws his inspiration from the natural environment in Brittany, and has been playing on bronze- and metal- strung harps since 1975.
