All by Cristine Merienne

Cristine Merienne is a singer, harpist, author and composer. She started her career in the 90s with Sedrenn - a piquant duet that contributed to the Breton musical landscape in this very active and creative period. At the turn of the millenium, she decided to combine her passion for music with her passion for writing and French songs. In 2004 she received a prize from the Sacem, and released 2 albums: "Les chaussures" and "Hors piste", together with musical colleagues. In 2012 she released "Madame est dans le jardin", a moving solo album where the harp is king.

In 2015, Cristine joined forces with Nikolaz and Alice Cadoret, Clotilde Trouillaud and Tristan Le Govic, to form Collectif ARP. Their many projects include workshops, events, shows, CDs, "JeanJeanne" in 2016, and "Diriaou" in 2018. That same year, Cristine Merienne wrote "La note rouge" a show for young audiences combining theatre, song - and of course, harp! Co-produced by Très-tôt-Théâtre and JM-France, this show is now published as an illustrated book and CD. It can also be discovered on video.
