Ben Creighton Griffiths is a jazz and classical musician based in South Wales, UK. He won the 2008 Junior Lily Laskine Competition at the age of 11, and has subsequently developed a busy touring schedule both at home and abroad.

International engagements include the Rio De Janeiro Harp Festival, International Harp Festival of Sentmenat, Journées de la Harpe en Guadeloupe, 1st International Prague Harp Festival, Dutch Harp Festival, New Orleans Jazz and Pop Harp Weekend, European Harp Symposium, and the Cambridge Jazz Festival.

Ben has released several jazz CDs, including his 'Incomplete A-Z of Jazz Harp', 'Pedals & Paws' and '1 Man Band'. His latest solo recording is La Vie En Rose – a selection of Gypsy jazz and swing classics released in October 2021.

Ben is a founding member of jazz fusion group 'Chube', and co-founder of The Transatlantic Hot Club with Gypsy jazz violinist Adrien Chevalier. Upcoming performances for 2022 include a rescheduled UK tour, the Wales Harp Festival, Aberjazz, Insole Court Cardiff, Edinburgh International Harp Festival, Brecon Jazz Club, and in New York City.
