8th Sweden Harp Days

Tristan
Le Govic

Alexander
Rider

Friday 31st May, Saturday 1st,
Sunday 2nd June 2024

Dear harpists, dear friends,

We are delighted to be organizing the 8th Camac Harp Days in Sweden, between Friday 31st May, Saturday 1st June, Sunday 2nd June. We would particularly like to thank our artistic director Ismahni Björkman, and the headmaster of Danderyds Kulturskola Anders Stengård, for their hospitality.

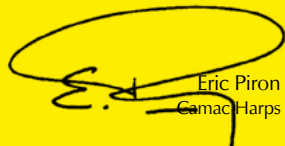

This weekend will be a chance to hear distinguished and internationally renowned harpists, with concerts by Tristan le Govic and Alexander Rider. Concert harp students can take part in a masterclass with Alexander Rider, and lever harp students can participate in a workshop with Tristan le Govic.

At the same time, our factory technician will be glad to service and regulate your Camac harps. There will also be an exhibition featuring Camac's full pedal and lever harp range.

In order to register for any or all events, please contact:

Friday 31st May

16:00 - 19:00: Camac Harps Exhibition
Danderyds Kulturskola

19:00: Concert Alexander Rider

With interests encompassing period performance to the newest music, Alexander freelances with major ensembles throughout the United Kingdom.

These include the BBC Concert, BBC Symphony, BBC Philharmonic and BBC

Scottish Symphony Orchestras, the City of Birmingham Symphony Orchestra, the London Sinfonietta, London Chamber Orchestra, English Touring Opera, Brighton Philharmonic, Chroma and (on the Erard) he appears with groups including the Gabrieli Consort and the Academy of Ancient Music.

Alexander is noted for his affinity with French music at the turn of the last century, and for his work on original instruments of the period. He has conducted extensive research into and recorded music and players of the time, delving into rich and often hidden histories.

Since May 2023, he has been very proud to work with Camac in the field of artistic relations.
